Year's Best U.S. Cabernets, 90 points (750mL)
Wine & Spirits, December 2018

A late release in magnum, this has entered into luscious maturity, the flavors a gentle caress of tart cherry and bruised strawberry. The red fruit follows an elegant line, mouthwatering in its earth tones and lasting with that vibrant fruit. Focusing on mountain and hillside vineyards, longtime winemaker Rob Davis made this vintage with Maggie Kruse, who has taken charge since 2019. (1.5L)

With generously rich fruit on a lean frame, this cabernet carries varietal notes of fresh green herbs turned toward smoky tobacco by the wine's time in oak. The tannins have a black-pepper spice, feeling light and gracious, ready for seared duck breast. (750mL)
