JORDAN VINEYARD & WINERY

Cabernet sauvignon-loving couples find nirvana at Jordan Vineyard & Winery. They have been a renowned producer of chardonnay and cabernet sauvignon in the European-style for over 50 years. They maintain a very high standard for wine quality, balancing it with engaging on-site tasting experiences and events and a top-notch culinary program that takes inspiration from its surroundings. More than three-quarters of the 1,200-acre estate where Jordan is located in the Healdsburg hills is still undeveloped and home to a variety of wild creatures and flora. The winery takes serious pride in being a sustainable business that operates on around 75% of solar power. With its commitment to crafting exceptional wines, this iconic Sonoma County winery, established by Tom and Sally Jordan, is a hidden gem that promises an unforgettable journey for wine enthusiasts and connoisseurs alike.

Stepping onto the grounds of Jordan Vineyard & Winery, one is immediately captivated by the beauty of the estate. The elegant architecture of the Winery Chateau stands proudly, exuding a timeless charm that transports visitors to the heart of French wine country. The ultra-luxurious member suites in the Winery Chateau are a stylish and comfortable option for overnight stays. Suites are refined and elegant, and some even boast a window that overlooks the in-house wine making facilities and wine cellar, creating an intimate connection with the winemaking process.

Jordan Vineyard & Winery stands out for its meticulous wine-making techniques and dedication to producing wines that showcase the unique terroir of the region. As we embarked on a guided tour of the winery, we were enthralled by the passion and expertise of the staff. The Tasting Library, located within the Winery Chateau, offered an intimate setting where we savored a selection of Jordan's exquisite wines. Expert sommeliers guided us through a curated tasting, sharing their knowledge and insights into each vintage. From the elegant Chardonnays to the robust Cabernet Sauvignons, each sip revealed the winery's commitment to producing wines of exceptional quality and character.

For those seeking a more immersive experience, the winery also offers seasonal vineyard hikes and estate tours, allowing guests to gain a deeper understanding of the winemaking process and the vineyard's unique ecosystem. These activities provide a wonderful opportunity to connect with nature and witness firsthand the dedication that goes into crafting each bottle of Jordan wine. Whether you are a wine aficionado or simply appreciate the finer things in life, Jordan Vineyard & Winery is a must-visit destination that will leave a lasting impression. So, take a step into the world of Jordan and indulge in a taste of France without ever leaving California. ✈
